itanislaus at the Mississippi Cathlic Business Education Associa ion contests in Jackson on April 19 brought back a variety of awards for superior performances in the contest.

The contests were in various fields of business education, and also included a test on Catholic Views on current events which all the students entering the contests took.

Stanislaus made a clean sweep of the Catholic Views Contest as Kenneth Potts, Dudley Stewart, Norman E. Wheeler, and Karl Gottschalk won first, second, third and fourth places in this contest respectively. Oscar Odriozola and Romula Sanz won fourth and fifth place honors in the bookkeeping competition and honorable mentions were also won by Adrian Combe for Catholic Views, Edward Kawas for typing, Norman E. Wheeler for advanced spelling and aul Diaz for bookkeeping.

Brother Damian was very well leased with the showing made by these boys, especially considerng the small amount of formal preparation which was possible. SSC placed fifth in overall points out of all the Catholic high schools in the state participating, which was also to be commended Bugler—C.
